

74th reunion for Keweenaw church

Ray Peterson/Gazette

TWO SERVICES were held for the second year in succession at the annual (74th) Central Mine Methodist Church reunion in Keweenaw Sunday. The guest speaker was the Rev. Ralph Jalkanen of Hancock, his wife, Pearl, a guest member of the choir, again complimented for its renditions. Jalkanen, reminded his listeners that religion faith and the Bible puts focus on today and the future so we can remember the past. "The church tells the goodness of God to man," he said.