

CENTRAL MINE REUNION — About 400 people attended the 79th annual service of the Central Mine Methodist Church during the past weekend. Rev. Theodore Ellsworth Doane, superintendent of the Marquette District, Detroit Conference of the United Methodist Church led two Sunday morning services. Guests included two members of the Automobile Club of Michigan, who made a video tape program of the program and several members of the Calumet High School class of 1935. Doane's wife, Helen, of

Cornish ancestry, was the soloist. In the above photo, Doane and his wife are flanked by seven members of the executive committee. From left, they are: Silas Rosemergy, R. Charles Stetter, Gary A. Bryant, Robert J. Bryant, Donald M. Ross, Dr. Fred W. Bryant and John E. Wilson. Helen Doane is at front left and the pastor at right. Six other members of the executive committee are not in photo. Henry Cox, the oldest, is a resident of Cypress Manor of Hancock. (R.C. Peterson photo)

Central Mine M.E. Church Archives
Daily Mining Gazette August 1, 1985 page ?